Paul will speak on faith and the arts and how to use arts to reach out from church to community.

Paul taught for 7 years at Oak Hill College and was then Vicar of Hartford in Chester and Archdeacon of Exeter. During that time he was Chairman of the Church of England Evangelical Council and a member of General Synod. Mainly for family reasons he then moved to be Senior Minister of Christ Church Presbyterian in Atlanta for 12 years before returning to Exeter. Paul now travels widely teaching New Testament and Theology in seminaries in South America and occasionally Africa, and leading parish weekends etc in the UK. He has written various Bible commentaries.
