

‘Nailed on?’

Were the 95 Theses the start of the Reformation?

Monday
9th October
9.45 for
Coffee/Tea
10.15 start

10 of Those
Unit C
Tomlinson
Road
Leyland
PR25 2DY

Rev Dr Tom Woolford

Dr Tom Woolford will speak about Martin Luther’s 95 Theses, which Luther later described as “papist nonsense”. However, the questions which Luther had raised went on to unravel the errors of the church and continue to have significance for today.

Tom studied history at Cambridge University, completing a PhD on sixteenth-century theological philosophy under the supervision of Dr Richard Serjeantson in 2011. After training for four years at Oak Hill College, He was ordained Deacon in Blackburn Cathedral on 1st July this year, and is serving as Assistant Curate with Canon Dr Simon Cox in All Hallows', Bispham. He is married to Julie and has three infant daughters.

Everyone Welcome